

Embassy of the Federal Republic of Germany

Kampala, 3rd September 2009

Press Release

International Justice Radio Workshop

Bettina Ambach, jointly with the International Criminal Law Services (www.iclsfoundation.org), a Hague-based NGO specializing in the field of international criminal law and practice, with the financial support of the German Federal Foreign Office are offering an awareness-raising workshop on international criminal and transitional justice issues.

The workshop is to take place between 7th and 18th September 2009 at the German Technical Cooperation (GTZ) office, Kampala, and will be implemented by Bettina Ambach, an expert in this field.

The aim of the workshop is to enable the participants to:

- plan and produce creative and informative radio programmes addressing issues such as the role and functioning of the International Criminal Court, and different forms of transitional justice
- critically analyse their own role and responsibility as communicators and development agents
- understand the needs and listening habits of their audiences

Guest lecturers will be

- Charles-Martin Jjuuko, ICC Acting Field Outreach Coordinator for Uganda
- Two representatives of the Office of the Prosecutor, ICC, The Hague
- Justice P.K.K.Onega, Chairman of the Ugandan Amnesty Commission
- Mohammed Ndifuna, National Coordinator of Human Rights Network-Uganda
- Justice Eldad Mwangusya, Deputy Head, War Crime Division of the High Court
- Moses Chrispus Okello, Head of Research & Advocacy Dept., Refugee Law Project

German Embassy, Press Office, 15 Philip Road, Kampala

For further information; info@kampala.diplo.de or +256 414 501111, Mr. Jude Musoke